

MINGLE

Meaning: MINGLE: To interact or socialize with others in a casual or informal manner.

1. At the party, guests were encouraged to mingle and get to know each other.
2. The children's laughter filled the air as they began to mingle on the playground.
3. During the networking event, it was important to mingle with professionals from different industries.
4. She preferred to mingle with friends rather than sit alone at the table.
5. As the sun set, the crowd began to mingle, exchanging stories and laughter.
6. The vibrant atmosphere made it easy for strangers to mingle and form new friendships.
7. During the networking event, professionals had the chance to mingle and share ideas.
8. She loved to mingle with different crowds at festivals, soaking up the diverse energy.
9. As the sun set, people began to mingle around the bonfire, sharing stories and laughter.
10. At the party, guests began to mingle and share stories over drinks.
11. It's important for new students to mingle with their classmates to make connections.
12. During the networking event, professionals had the chance to mingle and exchange ideas.
13. The children were encouraged to mingle during the school fair to make new friends.
14. As the music played, the crowd started to mingle on the dance floor, enjoying the lively atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mingle>