

MINGLER

Meaning: Mingler: a person who socializes and interacts with others in a casual or informal setting, often to make connections or network.

1. At the networking event, she was the ultimate mingler, effortlessly connecting with everyone in the room.
2. He considered himself a mingler, thriving in social settings and always eager to meet new people.
3. The party was filled with minglers, each one sharing stories and exchanging contact information.
4. As a natural mingler, she found it easy to strike up conversations with complete strangers.
5. His reputation as a mingler made him the go-to person for introductions at various social gatherings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mingler>