

MINISTRANT

Meaning: Ministrant: a person who assists in religious services, particularly by performing supportive roles during rituals or ceremonies.

1. The ministrant stood quietly at the altar, ready to assist the priest during the service.
2. As a devoted ministrant, she took her role seriously, ensuring everything was in place for the ceremony.
3. The church's ministrant was well-respected for his dedication and attention to detail.
4. During the mass, the ministrant carefully handed the chalice to the celebrant at the appropriate moment.
5. The young boy felt a sense of pride as he served as a ministrant for the first time, eager to help in any way he could.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ministrant>