

MINISTRATIVE

Meaning: Ministrative refers to tasks or responsibilities related to administration or management within an organization.

1. The ministrative duties of the new manager were clearly defined in the company handbook.
2. Her ministrative role involved overseeing the implementation of new policies within the department.
3. As a ministrative assistant, he was responsible for coordinating schedules and managing communications.
4. The ministrative team worked diligently to ensure that all reports were submitted on time.
5. Training sessions were organized to enhance the skills of those in ministrative positions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ministrative>