

MINK

Meaning: Mink refers to a small, semi-aquatic mammal known for its soft, luxurious fur, often used in clothing and characterized by its sleek, agile body.

1. The luxurious coat was made from the soft fur of a mink.
2. She admired the sleek, glossy appearance of the mink as it glided through the water.
3. Mink farming has raised ethical concerns regarding animal welfare and environmental impact.
4. His grandmother used to tell stories about how they hunted wild mink in the marshes.
5. The fashion industry has seen a resurgence in the popularity of mink accessories recently.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mink>