

MINUEND

Meaning: Minuend: the number from which another number (the subtrahend) is subtracted in a mathematical operation.

1. The scientist carefully measured the minuend before performing the subtraction.
2. In the equation, the minuend was significantly larger than the subtrahend.
3. Understanding the minuend in a mathematical problem is crucial for accurate calculations.
4. The teacher explained that the minuend is the number from which another number is to be subtracted.
5. When solving for the minuend, students often overlook its importance in the overall equation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/minuend>