

MINUS

Meaning: 'Minus' refers to a negative quantity or value, often indicating degrees below zero or indicating a deduction in scores.

1. The temperature dropped to minus ten degrees last night.
2. She finished the exam with a few answers marked as minus due to incorrect choices.
3. Despite the rain, the festival went on minus a few expected attendees.
4. He always sees the glass as half full, not as half empty minus the water.
5. The car's value decreased significantly, leaving it worth almost minus its original price.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/minus>