

MINUTE

Meaning: Minute (adjective): extremely small or insignificant in size, amount, or degree.

1. The meeting lasted a mere minute, yet it felt like hours.
2. She meticulously examined the minute details of the painting.
3. It only took a minute to realize that I had forgotten my keys.
4. He was a minute late, but it didn't seem to bother anyone.
5. The scientist discovered a minute organism that thrived in extreme conditions.
6. The meeting started late, but we still managed to cover every minute detail of the project.
7. She set a timer for one minute to see how many push-ups she could do.
8. His attention to minute discrepancies in the report impressed his supervisor.
9. After a minute of silence, she finally spoke up about her concerns.
10. The artist captured the minute expressions of the subjects in her portraits beautifully.
11. The meeting lasted for just a minute, but it felt much longer.
12. She meticulously examined every minute detail of the painting.
13. After a minute of silence, they finally began to discuss their plans.
14. He was late by a minute, but it made all the difference in the game.
15. The scientist recorded minute changes in the experiment's results over time.
16. The meeting was so engaging that I lost track of time and realized a whole minute had passed.
17. She carefully examined the minute details of the painting, appreciating the artist's skill.
18. Despite the chaos around him, he remained calm, focusing on the minute tasks at hand.
19. It took just a minute for her to decide that she wanted to take the job offer.
20. The scientist recorded minute changes in the data that could indicate a significant breakthrough.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/minute>