

MIRKY

Meaning: 'MIRKY' refers to water that is cloudy or murky, making it difficult to see through due to sediment or impurities.

1. The lake's mirky waters obscured the fish swimming just beneath the surface.
2. She hesitated to dive into the mirky pool, unsure of what lay hidden within.
3. As the storm passed, the once-clear river became mirky and uninviting.
4. The mirky fog enveloped the town, creating an eerie atmosphere in the early morning.
5. His thoughts were as mirky as the muddy water, making it hard to focus on anything clear.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mirky>