

MISAFPECT

Meaning: MISAFPECT (verb): to negatively influence or impair someone's emotional state or confidence.

1. The team's morale was misaffect by the sudden changes in management.
2. Her academic performance began to misaffect her confidence in her abilities.
3. The ongoing conflict seemed to misaffect the community's sense of unity.
4. His harsh criticism did not misaffect her determination to succeed.
5. They realized that their decision could misaffect their long-term goals.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misaffect>