

MISAFFECTION

Meaning: Misaffection refers to a lack of fondness or genuine interest in something, often resulting in indifference or disapproval.

1. Her misaffection for the project was evident in her lack of enthusiasm during meetings.
2. The artist's misaffection towards mainstream trends led her to create innovative and unique works.
3. Despite his misaffection for the team dynamics, he continued to participate out of loyalty.
4. The misaffection she felt for the city was surprising, considering how much she had loved it before.
5. His misaffection for the subject matter made it difficult for him to engage with the coursework.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misaffection>