

MISALLOTMENT

Meaning: Misallotment refers to the incorrect distribution or allocation of resources, funds, or shares.

1. The misallocation of resources in the project led to significant misallotment of funds.
2. Due to a clerical error, there was a misallotment of shares among the investors.
3. The company's financial report highlighted a misallotment of expenditures that raised concerns among stakeholders.
4. Misallotment can result in delays and inefficiencies that hinder overall project success.
5. After reviewing the budget, the team discovered a misallotment that required immediate correction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misallotment>