

MISBELIEVER

Meaning: A misbeliever is a person who holds incorrect beliefs or deviates from accepted doctrines, often leading others to adopt similar erroneous views.

1. The philosopher argued that a misbeliever could lead others astray with their flawed reasoning.
2. In the novel, the protagonist struggled with being labeled a misbeliever in a society that demanded strict adherence to faith.
3. Despite his misbeliever status, she appreciated his willingness to question long-held assumptions.
4. The documentary explored the life of a misbeliever who challenged conventional wisdom and faced societal backlash.
5. As a misbeliever, he often found himself isolated from friends who were deeply committed to their beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misbeliever>