

MISCALCULATE

Meaning: MISCALCULATE: to calculate incorrectly or make an error in judgment regarding numerical estimates or time.

1. She tended to miscalculate the time it would take to complete her projects.
2. The accountant realized he had miscalculated the taxes owed, leading to a costly error.
3. When planning the event, they miscalculated the number of attendees and ran out of space.
4. It's easy to miscalculate your expenses if you don't keep track of your receipts.
5. He miscalculated his strength and ended up straining his back while lifting the heavy box.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miscalculate>