

MISCIBILITY

Meaning: Miscibility is the ability of two substances to mix and form a homogeneous solution without separating into different phases.

1. The miscibility of oil and water is a common topic in chemistry classes.
2. Scientists often study the miscibility of various solvents to determine their potential applications.
3. Understanding the miscibility of different liquids is essential for creating effective emulsions in food production.
4. The miscibility of gases in liquids can significantly affect chemical reaction rates and efficiencies.
5. In the lab, we observed that the miscibility of alcohol and water increased with temperature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miscibility>