

MISCLAIM

Meaning: Misclaim (verb): To incorrectly assert or state a fact or claim, particularly regarding the validity or effectiveness of something.

1. The company was sued for misclaiming the effectiveness of its new drug.
2. He was quick to correct the misclaim made by the reporter in the article.
3. Many consumers felt cheated after discovering the misclaim about the product's origin.
4. The investigation revealed that the defendant had misclaimed his financial assets.
5. Her misclaim regarding the timeline of events led to confusion during the trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misclaim>