

MISCOMFORT

Meaning: Miscomfort: a state of unease or awkwardness experienced in social situations or physical environments.

1. Her sudden outburst at the meeting created an atmosphere of discomfort among the team.
2. The cramped seating arrangement on the bus led to a palpable sense of discomfort for all the passengers.
3. He tried to mask his discomfort during the interview, but his fidgeting gave him away.
4. The awkward silence that followed her comment filled the room with discomfort.
5. Even in familiar settings, certain topics can still evoke discomfort in conversation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miscomfort>