

MISCOMPUTATION

Meaning: Miscomputation refers to an error in calculation or estimation that leads to incorrect results or conclusions.

1. The accountant realized the miscomputation had significantly altered the financial report.
2. Due to a miscomputation in the algorithm, the predictions were wildly inaccurate.
3. The engineer addressed the miscomputation in the calculations before finalizing the design.
4. Team members were quick to point out the miscomputation that led to the project's delays.
5. After reviewing the data, she discovered a miscomputation that would affect the entire analysis.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miscomputation>