

MISCONCLUSION

Meaning: Misconclusion: an incorrect or mistaken understanding or interpretation of information or evidence.

1. The study's findings were misinterpreted, leading to a widespread misConclusion about the effectiveness of the treatment.
2. After reviewing the evidence, it became clear that the initial assumptions were based on a misConclusion.
3. Her misConclusion about the project's requirements caused significant delays in its completion.
4. The teacher addressed the misConclusion that many students had regarding the historical event.
5. To avoid misConclusion, it's essential to seek clarification before making judgments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misconclusion>