

MISCONFIDENT

Meaning: Misconfident: exhibiting a lack of confidence or certainty that leads to confusion or misunderstanding.

1. His misconfident approach during the presentation left the audience more confused than informed.
2. Despite her misconfident demeanor, she eventually proved her expertise in the field.
3. The team's misconfident assumptions led to several costly mistakes in the project.
4. Realizing he was misconfident about the facts, he quickly corrected himself in front of the group.
5. Her misconfident tone did not inspire the trust she hoped to convey to her colleagues.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misconfident>