

MISCONSTRUER

Meaning: MISCONSTRUER: A person who misinterprets or distorts the meaning of something, often leading to misunderstandings.

1. The artist felt frustrated when the critics became misconstruers of her intent.
2. In discussions, it's easy for someone to be a misconstruer, twisting words into something they were never meant to convey.
3. He was labeled a misconstruer after his comments were interpreted in a way that was completely contrary to his beliefs.
4. Her explanation was clear, yet some listeners acted as misconstruers, drawing inaccurate conclusions.
5. Being a misconstruer can lead to misunderstandings that strain relationships and hinder communication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misconstruer>