

MISCREDENT

Meaning: MISCREDENT: Adjective describing a belief or interpretation that is based on misunderstanding or erroneous assumptions.

1. The author's argument was undermined by a miscredent interpretation of the data.
2. In his speech, he highlighted the miscredent view that all technology is inherently harmful.
3. Her miscredent beliefs led her to reject well-established scientific theories.
4. The committee dismissed the proposal due to its miscredent assumptions about user needs.
5. Understanding the miscredent nature of the claims can help clarify the ongoing debate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miscredent>