

MISCREDULITY

Meaning: Miscredulity refers to a lack of belief or skepticism towards something that is generally accepted as true.

1. Her miscredulity towards the scientific explanation left her feeling confused and frustrated.
2. Despite the overwhelming evidence, his miscredulity prevented him from accepting the truth.
3. The town's miscredulity regarding the new policy caused widespread debates and discussions.
4. She approached the claims with a healthy dose of miscredulity, questioning their validity at every turn.
5. His miscredulity was evident when he scoffed at the outrageous conspiracy theories circulating online.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miscredulity>