

MISDISPOSITION

Meaning: Misdisposition refers to the incorrect arrangement, handling, or attitude towards something, leading to negative consequences or misunderstandings.

1. The misdisposition of the evidence led to a lengthy review of the case.
2. Her misdisposition toward the project resulted in a lack of enthusiasm from the team.
3. The committee's decision was influenced by a misdisposition of facts presented during the meeting.
4. Despite the initial misdisposition, she soon found herself enjoying the new role.
5. His misdisposition regarding the situation caused unnecessary tension among the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misdisposition>