

MISDISTINGUISH

Meaning: Misdistinguish: to incorrectly identify or differentiate between two or more things.

1. It's easy to misdistinguish similar-sounding words when learning a new language.
2. In her haste, she tended to misdistinguish between genuine compliments and mere flattery.
3. The researchers warned that a failure to properly define the terms could lead to misdistinguish in their findings.
4. He was careful not to misdistinguish the two species, as they had very different habitats.
5. The artist's unique style often led critics to misdistinguish his work from that of his contemporaries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misdistinguish>