

MISER

Meaning: A miser is a person who is excessively stingy and reluctant to spend money, often hoarding wealth despite having sufficient resources.

1. The old miser refused to spend a penny on anything that wasn't absolutely necessary.
2. Despite his vast wealth, the miser lived a life of extreme frugality, hoarding his money instead of enjoying it.
3. Everyone in the village knew him as a miser, never willing to share even a crumb of his fortune.
4. She couldn't understand why her father, a successful businessman, had turned into such a miser in his later years.
5. His miserly habits alienated friends and family, leaving him alone with his riches.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miser>