

MISERABLENESS

Meaning: Miserableness refers to a state of extreme unhappiness or suffering that is evident and affects one's demeanor or surroundings.

1. The miserableness of the situation was palpable, leaving everyone in a state of despair.
2. She couldn't hide her miserableness, which clung to her like a heavy fog on a dreary morning.
3. The novel explored themes of love and the enduring miserableness of loneliness.
4. In times of crisis, the miserableness that envelops a community can either unite or divide its members.
5. Despite the cheerfulness of her friends, an undercurrent of miserableness lingered in her heart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miserableness>