

MISFEELING

Meaning: Misfeeling refers to a lingering sense of discomfort or unease, often arising from misunderstandings or negative emotions in a relationship.

1. She couldn't shake off the misfeeling that lingered after their conversation.
2. The misfeeling between the two friends grew as misunderstandings piled up.
3. His misfeeling about the situation was evident in the way he avoided eye contact.
4. Despite their smiles, there was a misfeeling in the air that spoke volumes.
5. She tried to address the misfeeling, hoping to restore their once-close bond.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misfeeling>