

MISFORMATION

Meaning: Misinformation is false or misleading information that is spread, often unintentionally, leading to confusion or misunderstanding.

1. Misinformation can spread rapidly on social media platforms, causing widespread confusion.
2. Efforts to combat the effects of misinformation are essential for maintaining public trust.
3. The journalist was careful to distinguish between factual reporting and misinformation.
4. In today's digital age, misinformation can have real-world consequences for individuals and communities.
5. Educational programs aimed at media literacy can help reduce the impact of misinformation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misinformation>