

MISFORTUNED

Meaning: Misfortuned: experiencing bad luck or unfavorable circumstances, particularly in personal or professional matters.

1. He felt particularly misfortuned after losing his job right before the holidays.
2. Despite her talent, she often considered herself misfortuned in love, having faced numerous heartbreaks.
3. The misfortuned travelers found themselves stranded in a storm with no shelter in sight.
4. In a world where so many are misfortuned, kindness can be the greatest gift one can offer.
5. He believed that even the misfortuned could find hope and opportunity in their struggles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misfortuned>