

MISGOVERN

Meaning: To misgovern means to manage or govern poorly or ineffectively, leading to negative consequences for a community or organization.

1. The community began to suffer as the local council continued to misgovern its resources.
2. After years of misgoverning the economy, the government faced widespread protests from its citizens.
3. The CEO was ousted after it became clear that he had misgoverned the company's finances.
4. Misgoverning a nation often leads to social unrest and economic instability.
5. The historian argued that misgoverning during critical periods can alter the course of a nation's history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misgovern>