

MISIMPROVEMENT

Meaning: Misimprovement (noun): a change or modification that negatively impacts the effectiveness or quality of a project or process, contrary to the intended improvement.

1. The project's failure was largely attributed to a series of misimprovements that undermined its original goals.
2. In the quest for efficiency, the team experienced a misimprovement that complicated the workflow instead of simplifying it.
3. Her attempt to enhance the user interface resulted in a misimprovement that frustrated many users.
4. The company's recent changes were deemed a misimprovement, leading to a decline in customer satisfaction.
5. Recognizing the misimprovement in their strategy, the leadership team quickly pivoted to rectify the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misimprovement>