MISINFORM

Meaning: To misinform means to provide false or inaccurate information to someone, leading them to a misunderstanding.

1. The article was quickly retracted after it was revealed that it had misinformed the public about the vaccine's effectiveness.

2. She felt betrayed when she discovered that her friend had misinformed her about the details of the event.

3. The teacher emphasized the importance of fact-checking to ensure that students did not misinform their peers during discussions.

4. Misinforming clients can lead to serious consequences for a company’s reputation and trustworthiness.

5. Despite his good intentions, his attempt to explain the situation ended up misinforming everyone involved.

6. The article misinformed the public about the new policy changes.

7. She felt frustrated when she realized her friend had misinformed her about the event's location.

8. It is crucial for journalists to verify their sources to avoid misinforming their audience.

9. The teacher's explanation misinformed the students about the historical facts.

10. If you misinform your clients, you risk damaging your reputation in the industry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misinform