

MISINFORMATION

Meaning: Misinformation is false or misleading information that is spread, often unintentionally, leading to confusion or misunderstanding.

1. Misinformation can spread rapidly through social media, often leading to public confusion.
2. The organization launched a campaign to combat misinformation during the election season.
3. It's crucial to verify facts to avoid sharing misinformation unknowingly.
4. Misinformation about vaccines has contributed to a decline in public health safety.
5. Educators play a vital role in teaching students how to identify and question misinformation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misinformation>