

MISLACTATION

Meaning: Mis lactation refers to the inadequate or improper production of breast milk by a nursing mother, potentially affecting a newborn's nutritional needs.

1. Mis lactation can often lead to concerns about a newborn's nutritional intake.
2. Healthcare professionals must be vigilant about signs of mis lactation in breastfeeding mothers.
3. The mother's diet and stress levels can significantly impact the likelihood of mis lactation.
4. Frequent consultations with a lactation consultant can help prevent mis lactation issues.
5. Education on proper breastfeeding techniques is essential to avoid mis lactation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mislactation>