

MISLEADING

Meaning: Misleading: causing someone to have a wrong idea or impression, often by presenting information in a deceptive or exaggerated manner.

1. The advertisement was deemed misleading because it exaggerated the product's benefits.
2. His statistics were misleading, leading the audience to draw incorrect conclusions.
3. It's important to verify information, as misleading headlines can spread quickly online.
4. The teacher cautioned her students about the misleading nature of certain online sources.
5. Despite its attractive packaging, the misleading label failed to disclose key ingredients.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misleading>