

MISLIGHT

Meaning: MISLIGHT (verb): To illuminate in a misleading or distorted way, causing confusion or altering perception of the surroundings.

1. The artist's use of color was so vibrant that it seemed to mislight the entire room.
2. In the dimly lit hallway, the flickering bulb seemed to mislight the shadows, creating eerie shapes.
3. As the sun dipped below the horizon, the mislight from the streetlamp cast an unusual glow over the garden.
4. Her carefully placed candles mislighted the dinner table, giving it an enchanting yet distorted appearance.
5. The photographer adjusted the settings to account for the mislight, ensuring the colors appeared true in the final image.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mislight>