

MISLIKE

Meaning: Mislike (verb): to have a feeling of dislike or aversion towards something or someone.

1. I cannot help but mislike the way he constantly interrupts others during meetings.
2. Her decision to mislike the new policy has sparked a lot of discussions among the team.
3. Despite the beautiful scenery, I mislike the crowded nature of tourist spots.
4. It's hard to explain why I mislike the taste of cilantro, even though many people enjoy it.
5. He tends to mislike anything that disrupts his routine, preferring to stick to what he knows.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mislike>