

MISLIKER

Meaning: Misliker: a person who disapproves of or does not support something, often feeling out of place among those who do.

1. She always felt like a misliker in a group full of enthusiastic supporters.
2. Despite her outward politeness, she had become a misliker of the new policy changes.
3. As a misliker of crowded places, he often chose to stay home during the holidays.
4. Her friends teased her for being a misliker when it came to popular trends.
5. Being a misliker didn't mean she was negative; she just had different tastes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misliker>