

MISNURTURE

Meaning: Misnurture refers to the inadequate or improper care and support provided to a child, leading to negative emotional or psychological outcomes.

1. The child's emotional development suffered due to the misnurture from caretakers unaware of his needs.
2. In a study on parenting styles, researchers found that misnurture could lead to lifelong insecurities in children.
3. The community was shocked to learn how misnurture in early education could hinder potential for many young learners.
4. Misnurture, often overlooked, can have lasting effects on relationships and trust in adulthood.
5. She realized that her own misnurture as a child had shaped her adult perspectives on love and acceptance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misnurture>