MISOBSERVER

Meaning: MISOBSERVER: a person who fails to accurately perceive or interpret details or intentions in a given situation.

1. The misobserver failed to notice the crucial details during the presentation.
2. As a misobserver, she often misunderstood the intentions of her colleagues.
3. His reputation as a misobserver caused tension in the team discussions.
4. Being labeled a misobserver made her second-guess her instincts in decision-making.
5. The misobserver's reports were frequently challenged for their inaccuracies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misobserver