

MISPAIN

Meaning: MISPAINT (verb): to apply paint incorrectly or inaccurately, resulting in a flawed or unintended appearance.

1. The artist was frustrated when he realized he had mispainted the sky in his landscape.
2. After several hours of work, she discovered she had mispainted the details on the vase.
3. It's easy to mispaint when you're trying to rush through your final touches.
4. The children giggled when they saw how they had mispainted their classroom mural.
5. He decided to start over after he mispainted his masterpiece in a bright, clashing color.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mispaint>