

MISPENSE

Meaning: Mispense: to distribute or allocate something, especially resources or medications, incorrectly or carelessly.

1. She felt it was wrong to mispense the precious resources they had worked so hard to acquire.
2. In his haste, he began to mispense the medications, putting the patients at risk.
3. The teacher warned the students not to mispense their time during the exam.
4. To mispense information can lead to misunderstandings and confusion among team members.
5. The company was criticized for mispending funds meant for community development projects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mispense>