

MISPLEAD

Meaning: MISPLEAD: To incorrectly or inaccurately state or present facts or legal arguments in a legal proceeding.

1. The attorney was careful not to mislead the case, ensuring all facts were accurately presented.
2. In court, the judge reminded the lawyers that misleadings could jeopardize their clients' chances of winning.
3. After reviewing the documents, she realized she had inadvertently mislead the critical evidence.
4. The defendant's mislead could lead to a mistrial if not corrected promptly.
5. It is essential for legal professionals to double-check their submissions to avoid any mislead situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mislead>