

MISPROCEEDING

Meaning: Misproceeding refers to a failure or error in the legal process or procedures that adversely affects the outcome of a trial or case.

1. The court ruled that the case had suffered from serious misproceeding, leading to a mistrial.
2. Due to the misproceeding of evidence presentation, the defense team requested a retrial.
3. His misproceeding in the negotiation process resulted in a lost opportunity for the company.
4. The attorney highlighted the misproceeding during the trial, which ultimately influenced the jury's decision.
5. A thorough review revealed multiple instances of misproceeding that compromised the integrity of the investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misproceeding>