

MISPROUD

Meaning: Misproud (adjective): characterized by an inflated sense of pride or self-importance, often based on a false perception of one's accomplishments or abilities.

1. She felt misproud of her accomplishments, thinking they were more impressive than they truly were.
2. His misproud attitude led him to overestimate his abilities in the competition.
3. Despite his misproud nature, his friends appreciated his enthusiasm and support.
4. Recognizing her misproud claims, she decided to approach the situation with humility.
5. The misproud boastfulness he displayed made it difficult for others to take him seriously.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misproud>