MISQUOTATION

Meaning: Misquotation is the act of incorrectly quoting or representing someone's words.

1. The misquotation of the author's words sparked a heated debate among the critics.
2. She was embarrassed when she realized her misquotation had spread across social media.
3. The documentary featured a misquotation that changed the context of the entire interview.
4. His misquotation of the famous speech undermined his credibility as a historian.
5. To clarify the misquotation, the journalist issued a formal correction in the following edition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misquotation