

MISRECKONING

Meaning: Misreckoning: an incorrect estimation or calculation, particularly regarding resources or costs.

1. The misreckoning of the project's budget led to significant delays in its completion.
2. After a careful review, the team realized their misreckoning of the resources needed for the task.
3. His misreckoning of the weather conditions resulted in a poorly planned outdoor event.
4. The misreckoning of timelines caused unnecessary stress among the team members.
5. They learned from their misreckoning of the market trends and adjusted their strategy accordingly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misreckoning>