

MISREPRESENT

Meaning: To misrepresent means to give a false or misleading account of something, often regarding facts or qualifications.

1. The politician was accused of trying to misrepresent the facts during the debate.
2. It is unethical to misrepresent your qualifications on a job application.
3. Her attempt to misrepresent the situation only made things worse.
4. He felt that the media had misrepresented his views in their coverage.
5. Misrepresenting data in a research paper can lead to serious consequences.
6. The politician was accused of trying to misrepresent the facts to gain public support.
7. It's crucial for scientists to present their findings accurately and not misrepresent their data.
8. The advertisement was pulled after consumers complained that it misrepresented the product's effectiveness.
9. She felt betrayed when she learned that her friend had misrepresented her intentions to others.
10. Misrepresenting your qualifications on a resume can lead to serious consequences in your career.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misrepresent>