

MISREPRESENTATION

Meaning: Misrepresentation refers to the act of providing false or misleading information about something, often leading to incorrect conclusions or decisions.

1. The lawyer argued that the defendant's claims were based on a misrepresentation of the facts.
2. Her misrepresentation of the company's financial health led to significant losses for investors.
3. The artist filed a lawsuit against the gallery for misrepresentation of her work in its promotional materials.
4. Misrepresentation in advertising can lead to legal consequences for businesses that deceive consumers.
5. He realized too late that his enthusiasm had led to a misrepresentation of the project's actual potential.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misrepresentation>